

CENTRAL TEXAS COLLEGE

Education For The Individual

FORT SILL, OKLAHOMA

Now offering Saturday Professional Development Workshops

*New Dates November 14 & 21, 2009

9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Professional Values

This course is a study of the Seven Army Values and their application to military and personal life. It is designed to acquaint the student with the Army Values, distinguish between professional values and personal values, and understand how they apply to their unit, community, and nation.

December 5 & 12, 2009

9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Professional Ethics

This course examines current definitions of ethics and provides opportunities for group and personal analysis of ethical issues. Participants will gain experience in making ethically related decisions through exercises with case studies. The lecture material and group exercises will increase participant awareness in the principles involved in ethical decision making.

Enrollment is now OPEN!

Visit our office at the Harry S. Truman Education Center or call 580-353-7551

Take your college with you.