The concept of hospitality is as old as recorded time. From breaking bread with a passing stranger, to the daily operations of today’s multi-faceted hospitality conglomerates, the hospitality industry is a fascinating, fun and stimulating industry which needs professional practitioners seeking a challenging career. These programs help prepare students for positions in hospitality fields including restaurant and food service or hotel and lodging operations. In addition, hospitality management is a global career which could include challenging and rewarding supervisory positions for cruise lines, at amusement parks, in hotels of all kinds, and much more!
