REFERENCES

The word References, or Reference if there is only one source, is centered at the top of a new page, and bolded. The font should be the same as used in the rest of the paper.

References are listed in alphabetical order by author. If there is not an author, the title is used. Items are double spaced, one inch from the left margin in a hanging paragraph format.

Note: For most references only the first letter of the title, subtitle, and proper nouns are capitalized. All major words of an academic journal title are capitalized. Titles of books and journals are italicized.
