Staff Spotlight

Please welcome Jordan Davidson, the new Instruction and Outreach Librarian. Jordan will partner with faculty to support students through information literacy, research instruction, database seminars, and outreach initiatives.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Byways Reception

April 15, 2026

Celebrate the work of CTC student artists and writers featured in Byways: Journal of Arts and Letters. The reception honors student contributions across art, creative writing, and music.

Campus Bowl

July 8, 2026

Bring your team together for a campus-wide competition hosted in the library.

Hobby Memorial Library

Welcome Faculty and Staff

The Hobby Memorial Library is a central academic partner at Central Texas College. We support teaching, learning, and scholarship through information literacy instruction, research expertise, curated resources, and dedicated spaces that enable students to work effectively and complete their academic work successfully.

Database Seminars

Librarians offer customized in-person or online database seminars for your classes. Sessions introduce students to CTC databases, research strategies, and citation/style guides relevant to your discipline.

Ideal for: research papers, course projects, and scaffolded assignments.

Request a seminar: <https://www.ctcd.edu/requestaseminar>

Byways: Journal of Arts and Letters

The library proudly sponsors Byways: Journal of Arts and Letters, CTC's annual literary and arts publication.

- Eligible contributors: current CTC students
- Accepted works: original short stories, poetry, song lyrics, music scores, and playwriting. Original paintings, drawings, digital art, sculptures, photography, metal work, and woodwork.

Register: <https://www.ctcd.edu/academics/library/byways/>

Submission deadline: March 23, 2026

RESEARCH PAPER REVIEW SERVICES

Faculty may refer students to the library's Paper Review Service. Librarians provide feedback on grammar, organization, clarity, formatting, and citation style to support academic success.
