Library Happenings and Events

Want to learn about transhumanism, self defense, the importance of voting, or therapeutic singing bowls? The library has a wide variety of programs and events that explore history, cultures, and self protection. Join in for an afternoon of poetry, with open mic, or discuss intriguing issues at the Philosophy and Popcorn meetings.

All this, and more can be found on the Library's Events calendar by clicking on <https://guides.ctcd.edu/c.php?g=940831>.

Events can be attended at the library, or as a Facebook live-streamed event. To register, or to request more information, email the library at ReferenceRequest@ctcd.edu, or call us at 254-526-1621. If you require accommodations for any event, please contact Disabilities Support Services seven days prior at 254-526-1195.
